

Biographical Sketch for Emanuel White, Sr.

Emanuel is a graduate of Southwestern Christian College. He also attended Abilene Christian University where he majored in Business and Bible. He has served the Forest Hill Church of Christ in Fort, Texas as Minister for over twenty six years. During his tenure he has ordained eight Elders and Nine Deacons.

Emanuel has served on the J. S. Winston Sound Doctrine Foundation Board for over 15 years. He currently serves as President of the Foundation.

Emanuel conducts gospel meetings, workshops on marriage, leadership and parenting. Emanuel also conducts a twenty week workshop for men called “The Brotherhood of Men”, where he teaches men how to understand and fulfill God’s design for manhood. This movement has grown into an annual three day conference where men gather from all over the country to sharpen their manly skills.

Emanuel has been happily married for over thirty seven years to the lovely Carolyn Williams White. She also is a graduate of Southwestern Christian College. They have two sons, Emanuel II and Kelton.
